State of New Jersey.
SENATE CHAMBER
TRENTON, N. J.
July 22d, 1874.

To the Hon. Henry C. Kelsey, Secretary of State.

Sir:—You are hereby directed to cause to be published in all of the newspapers of this State, authorized to publish the laws of the last session of the Legislature, by one insertion each week for the term of three months, in each of said newspapers, the proposed Amendments to the Constitution of New Jersey, passed by the last Legislature and filed in your office by the Secretary of the Senate.

Yours, &c.
JOEL PARKER, Governor.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the State of New Jersey.

ARTICLE I.
RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES.

Insert as paragraph 19, a new paragraph, as follows:

"19. No county, city, borough, town, town- ship or village, shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit, to or in aid of any individual association or corpora- tion, or become security for, or be directly or indirectly the owner of any stock or bonds of any association or corporation."

Insert as paragraph 20, a new paragraph, as follows:

"20. No donation of land or appropriation of money shall be made by the state or any municipal corporation to or for the use of any society, association or corporation whatever."

Change the number of present paragraph 19 to number 21.

ARTICLE II.
RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

Section 1.

Strike out the word "white" between the word "every" and the word "male" in the first line.

Add to the paragraph the following:

"And further provided, that in time of war no elector in the actual military service of the state, or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from such election district; and the legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which, and the time and place at which, such absent electors may vote and for the return and canvass of their votes in the election districts in which they respectively reside."

Section II.

Strike out all the second section after the word "bribery."

ARTICLE IV.
LEGISLATIVE.

Section 1.

Paragraph 3—Strike out the words "second Tuesday of October" and insert in lieu thereof the words "first Tuesday after the first Monday in November."

Section IV.

Paragraph 7—Strike out the following words:

"A compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the state; which compensation shall not exceed the sum of three dollars per day for the period of forty days from the commencement of the session, and shall not exceed the sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day for the remainder of the session. When convened in extra session by the Governor they shall receive such sum as shall be fixed for the first forty days of the ordinary session. They shall also receive the sum of one dollar for every ten miles they shall travel in going to and returning from their place of meeting on the most usual route."

—And insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Annually the sum of five hundred dollars during the time for which they shall have been elected; and while they shall hold their office, and no other allowance or emolument, directly or indirectly, for any purpose whatever."

Section VII.

Paragraph 4—Add to the paragraph the follow- ing:

"No law shall be revived or amended by refer- ence to its title only but the act revived, or the section or sections amended, shall be inserted as at length. No general law shall embrace any provision of a private, special or local character. No act shall be passed which shall provide that any existing law or any part thereof, shall be made or deemed a part of the act, or which shall enact that any existing law or any part thereof, shall be applicable, except by in- serting it in such act."

Paragraph 6—Insert the word "free" be- tween the word "public" and the word "schools," and add to the paragraph the follow- ing:

"The legislature shall provide for the main- tenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of free public schools for the instruc- tion of all the children in this state between the ages of five and eighteen years."

Strike out paragraph 8, as follows:

"8. The assent of three-fifths of the mem- bers elected to each house shall be requisite to the passage of every law for granting, contin- uing, altering, amending or renewing charters for banks or money corporations; and all such charters shall be limited to a term not exceeding twenty years."

Change the number of present paragraph 9 to 8.

Insert as paragraph 9, a new paragraph, as follows:

"9. No private, special, or local bill shall be passed, unless public notice of the intention to apply therefor, and of the general object there- of, shall have been previously given. The legis- lature at the next session after the adoption hereof, and from time to time thereafter, shall prescribe the time and mode of giving such notice, the evidence thereof, and how such evi- dence shall be pre-ferred."

Insert as paragraph 11, a new paragraph, as follows:

"11. The legislature shall not pass private, local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say:

"Laying out, opening, altering and working roads or highways.

"Vacating any road, town plot, street, alley or public grounds.

"Regulating the internal affairs of towns and counties; appointing local officers or commis- sions to regulate municipal affairs.

"Selecting, drawing, summoning or empow- ering grand or petit jurors.

"Creating, increasing or decreasing the per- centage or allowance of public officers during the term for which said officers were elected or appointed.

"Changing the law of descent.

"Granting to any corporation, association or individual any exclusive privilege, immunity or franchise whatever.

"Granting to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down railroad tracks.

"Providing for changes of venue in civil or criminal cases.

"Providing for the management and support of free public schools.

"The legislature shall pass general laws pro- viding for the cases enumerated in this para- graph, and for all other cases when, in its judg- ment, may be provided for by general laws. The legislature shall pass no special act confer- ring corporate powers, but they shall pass gen- eral laws under which corporations may be or- ganized and corporate powers of every nature conferred, subject, nevertheless, to repeal or al- teration at the will of the legislature."

Insert as paragraph 12, a new paragraph, as follows:

"12. Property shall be assessed for taxes un- der general laws, and by uniform rules, accord- ing to its true value."

Section VIII.

Insert as paragraph 7, a new paragraph, as follows:

"7. Every officer of the legislature shall, be- fore he enters upon his duties take and sub- scribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly promise and swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully, impartially and justly perform all the duties of the office of — in the best of my ability and understanding; that I will carefully preserve all records, papers, writings or property entrusted to me for safe keeping by virtue of my office, and make such disposition of the same as may be required by law."

ARTICLE V.
EXECUTIVE.

Section I.

Paragraph 3—After the word "whereas," insert the words "and in said paragraph, insert the words" in the second line.

Paragraph 7—Add to the paragraph the fol- lowing:

"If any bill presented to the governor con- tain several items of appropriations of money, he may object to one or more of such items while approving of the other portions of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects, and the appropriation so objected to shall not take effect. If the legis- lature be in session he shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such statement, and the items objected to shall be separately reconsidered. If, on reconsidera- tion, one or more of such items be approved by a majority of the members elected to each house, the same shall be a part of the law, not- withstanding the objections of the governor. All the provisions of this section in relation to bills not approved by the governor shall apply to cases in which he shall withhold his approval from any item or items contained in a bill ap- propriating money."

Paragraph 8—Add to the paragraph the fol- lowing:

"Nor shall he be elected by the legislature to any office under the government of this state or of the United States, during the term for which he shall have been elected governor."
